Naturstein - Germany's leading* magazine for the natural stone industry

Who we are and what we offer

Natural stone is incomparably versatile. In each edition we assist our readers in the processing and application of this building material and in the marketing of their products. Our editorial mix includes reports, interviews and »discussions with experts« on current technical questions. Building and Landscaping, Cemeteries and Gravestones, Stone Market and Technology are regular headlines in our magazine.

Close to the market

Our editorial staff are well connected. We visit companies and report on all important events. Naturstein keeps in close contact with the industry world wide, debating problems and opportunities, identifying trends and perspectives. Through our network we are able to keep our readers well informed of new processes and products. With all this information we support our target group in its day to day business.

With Naturstein you address your customers directly, comprehensively and effectively.

As Germany's leading* magazine for the natural stone industry, Naturstein together with Natursteinonline.de (webshop included) is the communication platform for all relevant sectors of the industry. Advertisers profit from our content quality, our editorial engagement in social media and the resulting overall reach.

We offer

These »personas« we target on all channels

The »personas« presented here are not existing persons, but stereotypical representatives of our most important reader/user groups. They help our editors in researching, writing and planning, always taking into account the needs, wishes and goals of the respective reader/user. We prepare all content and products to fit the respective »persona« and choose suitable channels to reach this special target group. Our knowledge of the market helps our advertising partners to reach their future customers, our readers.

Master of stonemasonry

leading a gravestone family business in the fourth Generation. Confronted with dramatical changes in the cemetery culture, he relies on »Naturstein« and »Naturstein-online« for information and tips. He is also interested in natural stone suppliers, new designs in gravestones, the changes in cemetery culture and portraits about other stonemasons.

Gustav Gestalter, master of stonemasonry and sculptor, creates gravestones and individual sculptures in close contact with his customers considering their personal needs. He is not selling through price and is therefore not in competition with the mass market. He likes to read about design with natural stone, colleagues, artists, materials and exhibitions.

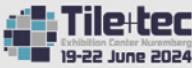

Exclusive interior and exterior design in natural stone is the profession of Bernd Bauprofi. With 20 or more employees, he is capable of highly specialized stone processing, using the latest technology and design. His customers demand reliability and high quality workmanship. He likes to read about technical innovations, new materials, business management, similar companies, communication and marketing.

Whether gravestones, restoration, kitchens, bathrooms or construction - the focus of Martin Mischbetrieb varies depending on the job situation. As part of his family's business with several employees he puts everything into keeping it flexible and competitive. He likes to read about developments in the industry, other companies and all aspects of the natural stone industry and his trade, for example construction, restoration, the gravestone business, new technologies, new materials, economical issues and good marketing.

Native Advertising

Nowadays, to catch the customer's attention you need not only classical advertising, but also a mix of editorial content and advertising or brand message, in short: Native Advertising.

How does Native Advertising work?

Native Advertising is storytelling. Your advertising or brand message is published in our platforms' editorial environment by introducing an editorial plot (story). Or your company (offer) is an integrated element of an editorial topic, without directly engaging in direct product advertising. Native Advertising sustainably supports you in building and extending your company's and your products' leading position in your relevant target groups.

What does Native Advertising achieve at Naturstein?

- Your content receives high attention and involvement from our community due to the high credibility and reach of our media brand(s).
- Your content is published within the look & feel of our editorial environment. Your content can either be edited by our professional team or created in full for you.
- Good content keeps the visitor longer on the site, leading to higher involvement with your product and increasing the visibility of your brand message.

- Native Advertising is a great way to reach your target group across all relevant communication channels (print, online, social media) and avoiding ad blockers.
- It helps to reach your target group by creating a larger audience for your product and brand.
- The market position of Naturstein and our clear persona definition (page 5) gives you the opportunity to customise the editorial plot to your target group.
- Native Advertising supports your company in establishing itself as an opinion leader in your target group.
- It improves the visibility of your brand in search engines and social media channels, using search engine optimised (SEO) multimedia storytelling (editorial, images, graphics, video).

Content is king and we are the information champions

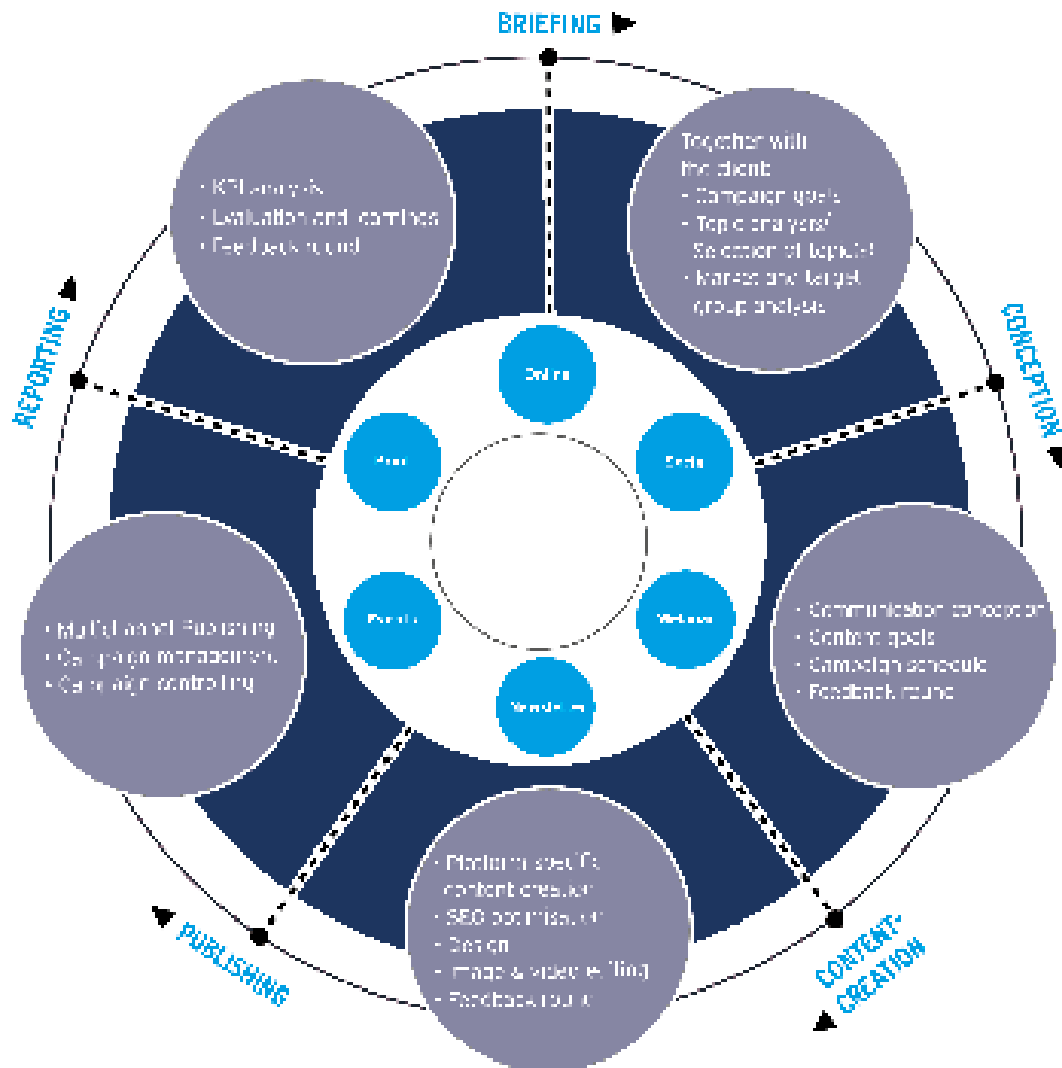

We are the content specialists for our target group and know exactly which topics our community is interested in. Simply leave the storytelling of your message to us. We will make sure that your topics reach our community effectively.

We will take on the campaign conception, content creation, multichannel publishing, campaign management and reporting. A one-stop full service - from your target group's content specialists.

»We provide specialist information about all aspects of the natural stone industry on all channels. Use those channels to communicate your content in our editorial environment's look & feel.«

ONLINE: Database entries

Business Card: 600.- €/per year

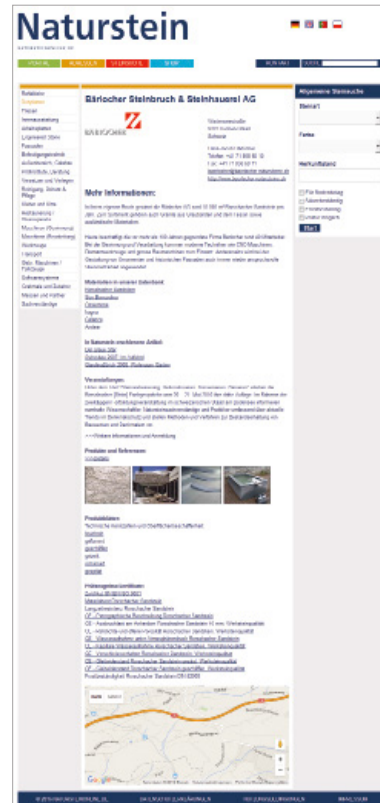

- Full version with logo
- Contact with link to company website
- Company name and Google map directions
- Link to online Buyers Guide
- Individual design
- Reference images and company information
- Videos
- For stone supplier: Links to 10 stones in our database (plus 1.00 € for each additional stone) your name appears under »Supplier« next to the stones you supply.

For more information relating to business card, see page 15.
If required your entry in the database can be included in both the German and English language portals (translation costs per line: 1.30 €).

How it works!

As a stone supplier: If your material is accessed in our database, your company name appears in the Supplier box on the right. A single click and your business card is displayed.

Suppliers of stone and products: When the relevant term is clicked (e.g. fixing systems) in the navigation on the left, your company is displayed among the listed suppliers. A single click on Continue and your business card will open.

Scope of the business cards

- ◀ Your full contact details with your logo and the link to your company website
- ◀ Description of your company and your products
- ◀ Links to other types of stone you have on offer in our database
- ◀ Your references in pictures and texts
- ◀ Documents such as company prospectuses or brochures
- ◀ How to find us using Google-Maps

Terms and Conditions for Advertisements and Third-Party Supplements in Newspapers and Magazines

1. Exclusive Scope, agreement

1.1 In its own name and for its own account, the Ebner Media Group GmbH & Co. KG, Karlstrasse 3, D-89073 Ulm (hereinafter referred to as "publisher") markets advertisements for the news-papers and magazines that it publishes.

1.2 The following terms and conditions are exclusively valid for all contractual relationships between the publisher and the customer (hereinafter referred to as "customer") with regard to the placement of advertisements. The validity of any general terms and conditions of the customer is expressly excluded, even if the publisher does not contradict in individual cases.

1.3 The publisher agrees to comply with the regulations of the minimum wage (MiLoG). This is also valid, insofar as the publisher orders other contractors with attendances.

2. Services; Submission for Publication; Completion

2.1 In the context of these terms and conditions, an "advertising order" is a contract by an advertiser or other purchaser of advertising space for the publication of one or more advertisements in a publication for the purpose of dissemination.

2.2 In case of doubt, advertisements are to be submitted for publication within one year after the signing of the contract. If a contract grants the right to submit individual advertisements, then the contract is to be completed within one year after the publication of the first advertisement, assuming that the first advertisement was submitted and published during this year.

2.3 Upon signing an advertising contract, the customer also has the right to submit, within the agreed or one-year period according to paragraph 2.2, additional advertisements beyond the volume specified in the contract.

2.4 If an order is not completed due to reasons for which the publisher is not responsible, then, notwithstanding any other legal obligations, the customer shall pay the publisher the difference between the contractually granted discount (taking into consideration the pre-defined total volume) and the actual total volume (discount adjustment charge). The payment shall not apply if the failure is due to force majeure within the risk area of the publisher.

3. Calculation of Volumes

3.1 For the calculation of volumes, text millimeter lines are converted according to price into advertisement millimeters.

3.2 The publisher must receive orders for advertisements and third-party supplements which are intended for publication in specific numbers, in specific issues or in specific places within the publication before the closing date so the publisher can notify the customer, prior to the advertising deadline, that the order cannot be completed in this way. Classified ads will be printed in the relevant section without the need for express agreement.

3.3 Text advertisements are advertisements bordered on at least three sides by text and not by other advertisements. Advertisements that are not identifiable as advertisements due to their layout can be clearly labeled as such by the publisher with the word "advertisement."

4. Publisher's Right of Refusal; Orders for Supplements

4.1 The publisher reserves the right to refuse advertising orders, individually submitted advertisements in the context of a signed contract or orders for the insertion of supplements due to the contents, the origin or the technical form according to uniform, objectively justified principles of the publisher if their content violates laws or legal regulations. This also applies to orders placed with branches, reception points or representatives.

4.2 Orders for supplements are binding on the publisher after submission of a sample of the supplement and its approval. Supplements which, due to their format or layout, give the reader the impression that they are part of the newspaper or magazine, or which contain third-party advertisements, will be accepted subject to change. The customer will be notified immediately if the publisher decides to refuse an order.

5. Obligations of the Customer

5.1 The customer is responsible for assuring the timely delivery of the advertising copy and the flawlessness of the printing documents or supplements. If advertising orders, changes in the scheduling or the desired issue, textual corrections and/or cancellations are communicated via telephone, the publisher assumes no liability for same. If printing documents are obviously unsuitable or damaged, the publisher shall immediately request replacements for same. Within the limitations imposed by the printing documents, the publisher guarantees the standard of printing quality customary for the publication.

5.2 Cancellations must be made in writing. If an order is cancelled, the publisher can bill the customer for the costs incurred due to typesetting.

5.3 The customer is obliged to bear the costs of publication of a reply which refers to actual assertions in the published advertisement. These costs will be calculated according to the currently applicable advertising rate. This applies only in the event that the publisher is obliged to print the reply.

5.4 Exclusion of competition cannot be guaranteed. Placement requests are subject to availability of space. The publisher reserves the right to change previous placements due to reasons related to the page layout; such changes shall not affect the validity of the order. The publisher likewise reserves the right to change branch-of-industry designations.

5.5 If the printed advertisement is wholly or partly illegible, incorrect or incomplete, the customer has a claim to price reduction or to a perfectly corrected replacement advertisement, but only to the extent to which the purpose of the original advertisement was impaired. If the publisher fails to publish the replacement advertisement within an agreed and reasonable time period or if the replacement advertisement is again flawed, then the customer has a right to a price reduction or to cancellation of the order.

6. Liability of the Publisher

The publisher assumes unlimited liability for damages caused by his legal representatives or executive employees and for damages caused deliberately by other agents acting on his behalf; in the event of a negligent breach of duty, the publisher is also liable for damages arising from injury to life, body or health. The publisher is liable for product liability damages in accordance with the provisions of the Product Liability Act. The publisher is liable for damages caused by his legal representatives or executive employees arising from the breach of cardinal obligations; cardinal obligations are the essential duties which form the basis of this contract, which were crucial for the completion of this contract, and upon the fulfillment of which the licensee can rely. If the publisher has breached these cardinal obligations due to slight negligence, then his liability is limited to the amount that was predictable for the publisher at the time when each service was rendered. The publisher is liable for the loss of data only up to the amount that would have been incurred for recovery of the data if proper and regular back up of the data had been undertaken. Further liability of the licensor is excluded.

7. Proofs; Calculation

7.1 Proofs will be provided only by request. The customer bears the responsibility for the correctness of the returned proofs. The publisher has the right to expect the corrections to be communicated to him within the period specified when the proofs were sent to the customer.

7.2 If no special instructions about the size and dimensions are given, the calculation will be based on the customary and actual printed height of the advertisement.

8. Invoicing; Delay; Voucher Copy of the Advertisement

8.1 If the customer has not paid in advance, then the invoice will be sent immediately or no later than fourteen days after the publication of the advertisement.

8.2 Unless a different payment period or prepayment has been agreed in individual instances, the invoice must be paid within the period specified in the price list. This period begins with the customer's receipt of the invoice. Any discounts for early payment will be granted as specified in the price list.

8.3 Interest and collection fees will be charged if the payment is delayed or deferred. In the event of a delayed payment, the publisher can delay completion of the current order until the payment is received and can demand prepayment for the remaining advertisements. If there is reasonable doubt about the solvency of the customer, the publisher has the right, also during the running time of an advertising contract and without consideration of an originally agreed payment date, to make the publication of further advertisements contingent upon the advance payment of the amount and the settlement of outstanding invoices.

8.4 If so desired by the customer, the publisher will deliver a voucher copy of the published advertisement together with the invoice. Depending on the nature and size of the order, the delivered voucher copy will consist of tear sheets, full pages or complete copies of the issue that carried the advertisement. If a voucher copy can no longer be obtained, its place shall be taken by a legally binding certification from the publisher averring that the advertisement was indeed published and disseminated.

9. Cost; Price Reduction

9.1 The customer shall bear the expenses of preparing ordered printing blocks, stencils and drawings, as well as the expenses of significant changes to the originally agreed versions desired by the customer or for which the customer is responsible.

9.2 In case of a contract covering several advertisements, a decrease in circulation can serve as the basis for a claim to price reduction if the average circulation specified in the price list or otherwise mentioned is not achieved in the overall average of the year beginning with the scheduled publication of the first advertisement or, in the event that no circulation volume is mentioned, if the average sold circulation (for special-interest magazines; the average actually distributed circulation) is less than the average sold circulation during the previous calendar year. A decrease in circulation is a shortcoming which justifies a price reduction only to following extents:

- 20% price reduction for circulation up to and including 50,000 copies
- 15% price reduction for circulation up to and including 100,000 copies
- 10% price reduction for circulation up to 500,000 copies
- 5% price reduction for circulation of 500,000 or more copies.

Additionally, claims for price reduction are excluded if the publisher has informed the customer of the reduced circulation so far in advance that the customer could cancel the order prior to the publication of the advertisements.

10. Classified Advertisements with Box Numbers; Documents; Storage

10.1 For classified advertisements with box numbers, the publisher will exercise the due diligence incumbent upon a prudent businessman to assure the safekeeping and timely forwarding of offers. Registered and express letters in response to classified advertisements with box numbers will be forwarded by normal post.

10.2 The publisher will return valuable documents without being obliged to do so. Letters which exceed the permissible DIN C 4 format (weight: 500 grams), parcels containing merchandise, books or catalogues, and small packages will not be forwarded and their delivery will be refused. However, in exceptional instances, acceptance of delivery and forwarding can be agreed if the customer pays the costs and/or fees incurred for same.

10.3 In the interest of the customer and for his protection, the publisher reserves the right to open and to inspect incoming letters or parcels in order to preempt or eliminate any misuse of boxnumber services. The publisher is not obliged to forward business proposals or brokerage offers. Printing documents will be returned only at the specific request of the customer. The obligation to keep such documents ends three months after the expiration of the order.

11. Place of Performance and Place of Jurisdiction; Applicable Law

11.1 In business transactions with merchants, legal entities or special funds under public law, the place of performance and the place of jurisdiction is the head office of the publisher. However, the publisher also has the right to sue at the court of law which is responsible for the region in which the customer's head office is located.

11.2 German law applies with the exclusion of the UN Sales Convention.

General Terms and Conditions of Business for Online Advertising

1. Exclusive Applicable Scope

11 The Ebnor Media Group GmbH & Co. KG, Karlstrasse 3, D-90073 Ulm, Germany (hereinafter known as "Publisher") markets advertising appearances in its own name and on its own account for the websites and smartphones and/or tablet PC applications which it operates.

12 Only the following General Business Conditions and no others shall be exclusively valid for all contractual relationships between the Publisher and the advertising contractual partner (hereinafter known as "Client") pertaining to the insertion of advertising appearances. The validity of any of the Client's general business conditions is expressly excluded and it is also excluded in the event that the Publisher does not object in individual cases.

2. Services, Online Advertising Media

21 In the context of these General Business Conditions, "services" are defined as all online advertising media and other bookable services in the context of the Publisher's advertising (e.g. the programming of advertising media, microsites, the conduct of marketing programs, etc.).

22 "Online Advertising Media" are defined as offers which consist of images and/or texts and/or sounds and/or moving images on a sensitive area (e.g. a link) which, in response to the click of a visitor's mouse, can be connected to one of the advertiser's predetermined Web addresses. In addition to classical banner advertising, these may also and especially include entries about a product or company, sponsoring, email campaigns or microsites. Also included herein are so-called "Download Offers" by the Client, e.g. video ads, e-books or other downloadable or streaming offers which the Publisher keeps available.

23 "Advertising Contract" is defined as the contract to insert an online advertising medium and/or other services for the purpose of dissemination via the Publisher.

3. Signing of a Contract

31 An advertising contract fundamentally comes into existence through written or emailed confirmation or through (partial) rendering of services by the Publisher.

32 In the event of booking via an intermediary (e.g. an advertising agency), if any doubts should arise, then the contract comes into existence with the advertising agency itself. If an advertiser becomes a client, the agency must mention this client by name.

4. The Client's Obligation to Cooperate

41 Insofar as the online advertising media are to be inserted by the Publisher, the Client shall make these advertising media available to the Publisher no later than four workdays prior to their agreed-upon first day of appearance. The delivery of data shall occur in compliance with the Publisher's currently valid technical "Format Requirements." If a timely delivery or a delivery that is not in accord with the technical requirements should make it impossible for the Publisher to accomplish the ordered and punctual publishing of the advertising media, the Client's obligation to pay for the services remains unaffected by same. The Client shall bear the expenses for the preparation of error-free material or for changes to the agreed-upon materials which are desired or necessitated by the Client.

42 The Client has the right to use links to refer to a target URL insofar as a new browser window opens. The implementation of other technical means, which reroute users from the site or which collect data about the users, is prohibited; in particular, the usage of over-the-page (OTP) advertising media, requests for the typing in of data about the user, and the insertion of cookies are permissible only with prior written consent from the Publisher.

5. Client's Obligations, Exemption from Liability

51 By implementing suitable and state-of-the-technology protective programs, the Client agrees to assure that the conveyed advertising media or the advertising medium which he has made available for insertion are free from damaging codes, e.g. viruses and/or Trojan horses.

52 The Client bears responsibility for the contents of the online advertising media and also bears responsibility for assuring that the online advertising media do not violate the rights of third parties. The Publisher is under no obligation to monitor the online advertising media with regard to their compliance with the currently valid legal regulations. The Client shall free the Publisher from claims from third parties which may arise from the performance of this contract, even if it has been terminated.

53 The Client affirms that with regard to all authors of online advertising media, the Client has received the necessary usage and exploitation rights which are conveyed to him by the Publisher in accord with clauses numbers 101 and 102. The same applies to necessary agreements (if any) with collecting societies (especially GEMA). The Client is responsible for the payment of sums to which these collecting societies lay claim.

6. Authority to Refuse, Interruption of Advertisement Measures, Identification

61 The Publisher has the right to refuse individual online advertising media if these violate existing laws or established jurisprudence, official legal orders, or a cease-and-desist declaration by the Publisher, or if such advertising media violate the rights of third parties, or if the publication is unacceptable for the Publisher because of the media's contents or origins or due to technical reasons. This right also exists for individual online advertising media which are to be published in fulfillment of a framework contract with the Client.

62 The Publisher has the right to (temporarily) interrupt the conduction of advertising measures insofar as a reasonable suspicion exists that the preconditions specified in clause number 61 are fulfilled, and especially in the event that a third party makes a not-clearly-unfounded claim to have suffered a violation of his rights, in the event that a warning has already occurred in a similar case, or in the event that governmental authorities have begun investigations. The same applies in the event that the Client makes subsequent changes in the contents of the advertising media which lead to a violation according to clause number

61. The Publisher shall inform the Client about any interruption of this sort with delay and shall give the Client the opportunity to demonstrate the legality of the advertising measure and, if applicable, to furnish proof thereof.

63 Similarly, the Client can demand that the Publisher interrupt or remove the advertising measure if the Client has received a third party's claim of a violation of rights. Insofar as the Client himself can remove the advertising measure or place it offline, in this instance the Client himself is obligated to remove or block the measure.

64 In the event that advertising measures are refused or interrupted according to the stipulations specified in the preceding clauses, the Client is nevertheless obligated to pay the agreed-upon fee to the Publisher, minus the monies which the Publisher has saved as a result of the refusal or interruption, unless the Publisher has been able to sell the intended advertising space to another advertiser. This obligation to pay does not exist insofar as the Client can prove that the content of the advertising media was legal and that no reasons existed for the Publisher to have refused and/or interrupted the advertising media.

65 Advertising media, which are designed in such a way as to render them not clearly recognizable as such, will be clearly separated from other contents by the Publisher, e.g. by labeling them as "advertisements."

7. Guarantee by the Publisher, Client's Obligation to Notify of Defects, Time Limitation

71 The Publisher guarantees the usual quality and publication of the online advertising medium in accord with the specifications in the order confirmation and the "technical format requirements" and with reference to the data conveyed Client to the Publisher.

72 If the publication of an online advertising medium does not satisfy the obligatory quality standards, then the Client has the right to demand a lengthening of the publication interval or to insist upon the immediate publication of a substitute advertisement in comparable surroundings. This right, however, applies only to the degree to which the purpose of the online advertising medium was impaired. If despite the fact that the Client had given the Publisher an appropriate amount of time during which to publish a substitute advertisement, the Publisher does not publish such a substitute advertisement, or if the publication of this substitute advertisement should likewise be defective, then the Client has the right to reduce the payment to the Publisher and to annul the order to the degree to which the purpose of the online advertising medium was impaired.

73 The Client shall immediately examine the advertising measure after its first appearance and shall notify the Publisher of any defects therein (Client's Obligation to Notify of Defects). In case of hidden defects, the Client shall notify the Publisher immediately after the discovery of such defects. Written notification of the presence of obvious defects shall be sent within five workdays after the first appearance of the advertisement; written notification of the presence of hidden defects shall be sent within five workdays after the discovery of such defects.

74 The Publisher guarantees the 94% availability per month of the website and thus of the advertising media. Not included in this time unit are interruptions, within a reasonable scope, which are necessary for the maintenance of the system; likewise not included herein are interruptions due to force majeure or unavoidable causes. The availability is understood as the ratio of actual time to targeted time.

8. Placement of Advertising: Use of Data, Running Time, Availability, Prices

81 The Publisher shall place the advertising media within the context of each booked advertising measure and with the greatest possible consideration of the Client's wishes. However, unless agreed otherwise, the Client has no claim to a particular placement or to the exclusion of advertising for goods or services of one of the Client's competitors.

82 If necessary, the Publisher shall place download offers, as well as the listings of businesses and/or products, together with information from other clients, in a database and shall keep this data available for users via the channels booked by the Client.

83 If, as a result of the services rendered by the Publisher, the Client should receive personal data or anonymous and/or pseudonymous data, these data may be analyzed by the Client exclusively within the context of the particular advertising campaign and in compliance with currently legally valid data-protection regulations, insofar as such analysis has been agreed upon within the context of the advertising contract. The Client is not permitted to process or use the data beyond this context, and the Client is especially prohibited from conveying the data to third parties. This prohibition also applies to the creation of profiles based on the usage behavior of users, especially through enriching existing data with information provided by third parties.

84 The pricelist which is valid at the point in time when the Client commissions the advertising from the Publisher shall be valid for the advertising contract. Price changes are permissible if more than four months intervene between the signing of the contract and the agreed-upon date of first appearance of the online advertising medium. However, such price changes come into effect only if the Publisher has announced them at least one month prior to the publication of the online advertising medium. The client has the right to annul the order within fourteen days after receipt of notification of the price increase.

85 In the event of an order to insert several online advertising media (framework contract), the insertion of the individual advertising medium shall occur within one year after the signing of the contract. With regard to the price, the pricelist shall be valid which was valid at the time of the insertion. Agreed-upon or granted discounts are valid only for the volume of online advertisements specified in the contract. If the complete insertion of all booked advertising media does not occur within the one-year interval, the Client is obliged to refund the difference between the discount as specified in the contract under consideration of the intended total volume and the discount as determined by the actual total volume (discount adjustment charge).

86 Insofar as the Client has booked a certain number of ad impressions for an advertising measure, the Publisher shall call the Client's attention to the fact that these statistics are necessarily based upon past experience. If the number of ad impressions does not reach this expected level, the interval during which the advertising measure remains inserted shall be extended until the booked number of ad impressions has been reached. If the placement which the Client had initially booked for a shorter interval has already been assigned to another client, the Publisher has the right, while appropriately taking into account the Client's interests, to shift the Client's advertisement to a comparable alternative place. Inherent in the system is the fact that counting differences may occur due to the operation of third-party ad servers. The numbers specified by the Publisher shall always serve as the basis for accounting.

87 Insofar as the Publisher renders services which are subject to copyright, the Publisher grants to the Client the simple usage and exploitation rights which are necessary for conducting the advertising appearances. Any further usage by the Client requires written consent from the Publisher.

9. Conditions of Payment, Prepayment, Right of Retention and Offset

91 The invoice shall be drafted on the first day of appearance of the online advertising media order; and in every case no later than the end of the month in which the order was inserted. If a prepayment has not been agreed upon, the invoice is to be paid without deductions within ten workdays after it has been drafted; after expiration of this deadline, the Client comes into default and must pay interest on the sum specified in the invoice in the amount of 8% above the currently valid base rate according to § 247 BGB.

92 If the Client does not meet his payment obligations as contractually specified or if he exceeds the due dates or if he discontinues his payments or if other circumstances become known which call the Client's creditworthiness into question, then (without prejudice to the existing due dates of payments and installment payments) the Publisher can also demand prepayment for the services specified in the contract, as well as payment of all unpaid invoices, including invoices which are not yet outstanding. Furthermore, the Publisher has the right to refuse to continue to render ongoing services until complete payment of the outstanding sums has been made.

93 Also in the event of differently formulated rules, payment will initially be applied to the older debt, in this instance first to the interest and then to the principal.

94 The Client has the right to offset or retention only if the Publisher has recognized the claim or if contrary claims have been judicially determined.

10. Granting of Rights by the Client

101 With regard to all online advertising media, as well as with regard to other contents published in the context of the advertising contract, the Client transfers to the Publisher the necessary usage and exploitation rights, as well as other copyright-related rights. In particular, these include the database right, the right to reproduction, dissemination, broadcasting and storage, and the right to make contents accessible.

102 With regard to the download offers and for the purpose of achieving comprehensive marketing, the Client grants to the Publisher the Client's contents, as well as the right to license these contents to third parties for the purpose of keeping these contents available in the Internet or of using these contents for other forms of offers (so-called "Content Syndication").

103 The Client grants these rights for the duration of the insertion of the advertising medium. With regard to Content Syndication according to Clause 102, the rights are granted with no time limit, but they can be recalled by the Client at any time after the expiration of a two-week period after notification of recall.

11. Liability of the Publisher

The Publisher assumes unlimited liability only for intent and gross negligence; in the event of negligent breach of a contractual obligation, the Publisher also assumes unlimited liability for damages arising from injury to life, body or health. In the event of slight negligence, the Publisher assumes liability for financial losses, including loss of earnings, only if such losses arise due to breach of obligations whose fulfillment the Client could rely upon to a special degree (contractual obligations). With regard to its amount, the liability is limited in this instance to the contractually typical average damages and to such damages as can be predicted in such cases and which are not controllable by the Client.

12. Place of Jurisdiction, Place of Performance and Proper Law

121 The place of jurisdiction and the place of performance is the Publisher's place of business in Ulm. This applies only if the Client numbers among merchants in the sense of §§ 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 HGB or if the Client is a legal entity under public law or is a public special estate or if the Client's place of residence or usual abode is unknown at the time the suit is brought or if the Client's residence or usual abode is moved after the signing of the contract to a location outside the jurisdiction of the law or if the Client has no general place of jurisdiction in Germany. The Publisher also has the right to bring actions before the court which is responsible for the Client's residence.

122 German law is applicable, to the exclusion of the UN Convention on Contracts.
